HOUSE PASSES A BILL

To Lessen Anarchy in America by Providing Penalty of Death.

FOREIGN MINISTERS ARE PROTECTED.

The Effort to Have the Measure Recommitted With Instructions to Strike Out Certain Sections Is Defeated.

Washington, June 10.—When the house met, pending the question coming over from Saturday was on the motion of Mr. De Armond (Mo.) to recommit the anti-anarchy bill, with instructions to strike out section 3, which made the killing of foreign ambassadors and ministers punishable with death, and section 13, which creates the legal presumption in all prosecutions under the act that the officers to be protected by its provision are engaged in the performance of their official duties at the time the offense is committed. The roll was called. The motion was lost, 71 to 135. The vote then was taken upon the passage of the bill, Mr. Lanham (Tex.) demanding the ayes and noes. The bill was passed, 175 to 38.

Bishops Appointed.

Rome, June 10.—The pope was present at the consistory. He was borne to the Sixtine chapel in the sedia gestatoria, surrounded by cardinals, and formally bestowed red hats on Mgrs. Martinelli, formerly papal delegate in the United States; Prince Archbishop Skerbinsky of Prague, and Prince Bishop Von Prozyna of Cracow. The pontiff also appointed several bishops including the Very Rev. William J. Kenney, vicar general of Jacksonville, Fla., as bishop of St. Augustine Verot, and Very Rev. Philip J. Garraghan, vice rector of the Catholic university at Washington, as bishop of Sioux City, Ia. Judge Taft, governor of the Philippine Islands, and the Americans with him, were invited to witness the ceremony. The party occupied seats in the diplomatic gallery. As the pontiff passed he recognized them and smilingly bowed to the Americans.

Off For Oyster Bay.

Washington, June 10.—Mrs. Roosevelt and her children left Washington on the Dolphin for Oyster Bay, where the family will spend the summer. The Dolphin will stop at New York to enable Mrs. Roosevelt to do some shopping and will proceed to Oyster Bay on Wednesday. The party was accompanied from the White House to the navy yard, where the Dolphin was awaiting them, by Secretary Cortelyou. Mrs. Roosevelt will remain at Oyster Bay until after July 4. She will then return to Washington and remain with the president until he leaves Washington.

Smith Courtmartial.

Washington, June 10.—The records of the courtmartial proceedings in the case of General Jacob H. Smith, who was tried by the Philippines for alleged cruelty in the possession of the campaign in Samar, reached the war department. The papers were placed in the hands of Secretary Root without having gone through the usual channels. The secretary will take the case to the White House for the president's consideration, and meanwhile no statement in regard to it is available at the war department.

Prisoners Discharged.

New York, June 10.—William (Bat) Masterson, J. E. Sanders, Leopold Frank and James C. Sullivan, who were arrested Friday on the charge of having swindled George A. Snow, a Mormon elder, by means of a "brace" game of faro, and were held on an affidavit made out by the detectives charging them with a misdemeanor in having possession of gambling paraphernalia, were discharged. Masterson was fined $10 for carrying concealed weapons.

Chicago, June 10.—The life and work of Rev. John Barrows, president of Oberlin college, whose death is so greatly mourned, has been lauded in many of the Chicago churches, special memorial services being held in the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Barrows was pastor for many years. Rev. Dr. William J. Chicester, the successor of Dr. Barrows in the pulpit of the First church, preached the memorial sermon.

Mines at a Standstill.

Keystone, W. Va., June 10.—The mines in the Flat Top and Tug River fields are practically at a standstill. Probably 20 cars were loaded during the forenoon at Bottom Creek colliery. About 5 per cent of the miners are at work at Elk Ridge, Lynchburg, Eureka and Mill Creek. Violence is threatened. Armed guards are on duty.

A WARM CONTEST

For Republican Nomination For Governor in Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 10.—The result of the fight for the Republican nomination for governor is still in doubt, with the chances between Judge S. W. Pennypacker of Philadelphia and Attorney General J. P. Elkin of Indiana county, with ex-Lieutenant Governor Louis A. Walter of Scranton claiming to hold the balance of power. Much depends on the 36 delegates from Allegheny county, and until it is known for a certainty how they will vote there will hardly be a material change in the situation.

Senator Quay and Insurance Commissioner Durham, who have charge of Pennypacker's candidacy, say he will be nominated on the first ballot even if he does not get a single vote from Allegheny county. Elkin says he is sure of a majority of the Allegheny delegates, and that he has enough delegates pledged to nominate him on the first ballot.

Pennypacker's managers have already disclosed their candidates for convention officers. United States Senator Penrose has been selected by them for temporary chairman and Congressman Sibbey for permanent chairman.

Senator Quay will be a candidate for state chairman if Pennypacker wins. The present state chairman, Banking Commissioner Reeder, is a member of the state administration and is pledged to Elkin. The Elkinites have not yet indicated their choice for officers of the convention.

Keeper of "Blind Pig" Killed.

Jamestown, N. D., June 10.—At Bowdon, Fritz Prillip, keeper of a "blind pig," was robbed and beaten to death, and Thomas Davis, Thomas Carr, Albert Bowman, Harry Cullum and James O'Brien, transients, have been arrested, charged with the crime. Prillip came from Garner, Ia., and three months ago, started a "blind pig" at Bowdon. On the night of the murder there was a large crowd in his place drinking and carousing, until finally only the five men now under arrest were left. A watch chain and coat belonging to Prillip, also a pair of skeleton keys, were found on the prisoners. At the inquest it developed that death had been occasioned by blows on head and shoulders.

Miners Sworn In.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 10.—It is reported that 68 new men were taken into the No. 5 colliery of the Susquehanna Coal company at Nanticoke. It is not yet known whether the men are to man the pumps or be placed on guard duty. A crowd gathered near the colliery, but it soon melted away. The local union at Nanticoke has selected 50 of its men to act as special policemen in the borough. The burgess has sworn in some of the men and will swear in the others during the day. Some of the engineers at Pittston, who have been working all along, did not go to work. There was a cave-in at Hughestown, a short distance from Pittston, but no one was hurt and no damage was done.

Argument Results in Murder.

New York, June 10.—For telling Noah Parker, 22, that he lacked the courage to shoot a fly, James Crane, 29, was shot and killed in a Brooklyn saloon. The bullet entered the man's heart, killing him instantly. When he saw his victim fall, Parker became excited and fired four other shots at the other persons in the saloon. None of the bullets took effect, however. Parker then hurried to his home, and later surrendered to the police. Parker, who is a negro, came from Kentucky. An argument over horse racing brought about the banter to shoot, which caused Crane's death.

Arrived Home Safely.

New York, June 10.—Twenty persons who were caught on a yacht in Long Island sound in Sunday's gale arrived at their homes safely. The yacht was owned by Charles E. Clark, a politician of the Bronx. The party had failed to return up to midnight, and a general alarm was sent out. It developed that the yacht's rudder broke shortly after noon, and the party, helpless before the gale, drifted in the course of the storm until a passenger steamer took them late in the afternoon and landed them about at Bay-side, L. I.

Selbach Selected.

Dayton, O., June 10.—Al Selbach, the Baltimore American league club's star fielder, was selected as a member of the All-American Bowling club, which is going to tour the western country to the Pacific coast next fall.

No Violence.

Vivian, W. Va., June 10.—Conditions here are the same as Saturday. Probably 15 per cent of the miners are at work. The strikers are pleading with them to come out. No violence yet.

WRIGHT AND MITCHELL

Hold a Conference in New York in Regard to Anthracite Strike.

FORMER REPRESENTS ROOSEVELT.

It Is Understood the President Will Secure All the Information Possible With a View of Effecting a Settlement.

Wilkesbarre, June 10.—President Mitchell left here at 11:03, over the Lehigh Valley railroad, for New York, where he will meet Carroll D. Wright, the United States commissioner of labor, at the Manhattan hotel. He expects to return to this city within 24 hours. Mr. Mitchell went to New York at the request of Mr. Wright, with whom he was in communication. When this information became known, rumors of peace were revived, and for a while they flew thick and fast. Mr. Wright, it is believed, will directly represent President Roosevelt. According to Washington dispatches, Mr. Wright and Senator Hanna have held a conference with the president during the last two days on the strike situation in the anthracite field. Whether Mr. Wright carries a plan for peace is not known at this time. Mr. Mitchell said before leaving that he did not know what Mr. Wright wanted to see him for. It is not believed that the president and the commissioner of labor will interfere, because they have no authority to do anything more than investigate the cause of strikes. It may be that the president wants to obtain a thorough knowledge of the dispute, and that he wants it officially, and for that reason he has sent his personal representative to New York to meet the labor president.

CARROLL D. WRIGHT.

Wright's Mission.

New York, June 10.—Carroll D. Wright, United States commissioner of labor, said that for him to tell whom he expected to see or what he intended to do might seriously interfere with his investigation of the anthracite coal miners' strike. He said that under sections 7 and 8 of the law under which the labor bureau is operated, charged the commissioner to investigate and report on all labor disputes. "Of course," said Mr. Wright, "I can not interfere or act as arbitrator. Although possessing no power under existing conditions as a patriotic citizen, President Roosevelt is interested in settling this trouble. He can not interfere, but can advise."

Hazleton, June 10.—Superintendent Kuddick of Cox Brothers & Company was attacked by women on the streets of Freeland, but he was not injured. About 800 strikers gathered at Ebervale and about 1,000 at Jeddo to intercept traction cars carrying nonunion men to North Side collieries. Sheriff Jacobs was notified of the strikers' intention, and accompanied by eight special deputies, took an early car to Freeland to prevent any demonstration. The mine workers learned that the sheriff had been appealed to for protection, and to make interference on his part unnecessary. District Secretary Gallagher preceded Sheriff Jacobs to Freeland. As his car neared Ebervale it was boarded by the strikers in search of non-union men, but Secretary Gallagher appealed to the men to disperse and persuaded them to return to their homes. At Jeddo the car was again stopped and boarded by strikers, but no non-unionists were found. Mr. Gallagher talked to the men at Jeddo and told them it was for the best interests of all that they discontinue these tactics. They retired when the car carrying the sheriff and officers came along no strikers were in evidence. The sheriff proceeded from Freeland to Wilkesbarre.

Mines to Be Flooded.

Hazleton, Pa., June 10.—Unable to secure firemen and pump runners, J. S. Wentz & Company will permit the Hazlebrook colliery to be flooded. Cox's Stockton colliery is reported by the mine workers at filling with water owing to the depleted force of firemen and pumpmen. The mine workers have given permission to the local light companies to haul culm for their plants from abandoned banks. A committee of citizens went to Maunch Chunk to protest against the stationing of deputies at the Yorktown colliery by Sheriff Gombert of Carbon county. Sheriff Jacobs has been appealed to by Cox Brothers & Company to furnish protection to non-union men on their way to and from Drifton.

MUTINY AMONG CONVICTS.

Several Guards Are Killed and Two Prisoners Escape.

Salem, Or., June 10.—Two desperate prisoners, Harry Tracy, sentenced to 20 years, and David Merrill, a 15-year man, serving sentence for assault and robbery, committed in Multnomah county, escaped from the penitentiary after killing three guards, Frank Ferrell, shop guard; S. R. Jones and Ben Tiffany, fencemen.

The prisoners had just marched into the foundry for work at 7 a. m., when Tracy appeared suddenly with a rifle, shot Guard Ferrell, killing him almost instantly. Ingram, a life prisoner, attempted to take the rifle from Tracy, when Merrill shot Ingram through the leg shattering it. Other prisoners, forced at the point of a pistol, permitted the two men to climb a ladder to the wall. Getting outside, they shot Guard Jones at a distance of 150 yards.

Guard Tiffany, after being wounded, jumped off the fence and followed the men, shooting at them until they killed him. The prisoners then escaped into the woods. A posse of 40 men is out after the prisoners, and has them located in the woods.

A battle is expected. The posse is headed by Sheriff Durbin, Sheriff-elect Colbath and several officers from the prison. The prisoners are armed with two rifles and two revolvers. The arms are believed to have been thrown over the stockade Sunday night by friends among excursionists who came from Portland. Ingram, the wounded prisoner, was sentenced from Linn county for killing his brother, in 1891.

The Liberty Bell.

Washington, June 10.—The Liberty bell arrived here, en route to Philadelphia from the Charleston exposition, where it has been on exhibition. The arrival of the bell was marked with brief patriotic exercises and thousands of people passed before the car throughout the day and viewed the bell. The special train conveying the bell and the committee of Philadelphia citizens appointed to bring it home, reached the Pennsylvania depot here. The Marine band played Sousa's "Liberty Bell". Bunches of flowers from children were placed on the car and carefully laid on the bell. During the exercises the Minute men of the district, uniformed in colonial uniforms, took position in front of the car, where they remained through the day.

To Pay For Property.

Washington, June 10.—The senate committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico authorized a favorable report on the proposition allowing pay for the destruction of property in Hawaii on the order of President McKinley on account of the prevalence of the plague during the transition of that territory in 1899 and 1900. The committee decided to recommend that an amendment should be made to the general deficiency appropriation bill providing for the payment by this government of $1,000,000.

About Miss Taylor's Dismissal.

Washington, June 10.—Representative Shellenberger (Neb.) introduced a resolution requesting the secretary of war to communicate to the house "the causes and reason for the dismissal of Rebecca J. Taylor from her position in the classified service of the war department." Miss Taylor is the clerk recently dismissed by the war department for writing letters to the press criticizing the president in connection with the administration of the Philippine affairs.

At West Point.

West Point, N. Y., June 10.—The centennial anniversary exercises of the establishment of the United States military academy began and will continue until Thursday, when the present first class of cadets, 54 members, will be graduated. The committee of officers to receive the visiting graduates is kept busy.

AT FAMOUS SARATOGA

Flames Destroy a Portion of the Business Section of the City.

FIRE CHIEF SHADWICK IS BURNED.

Remains of One Woman Found in Her Room in the Arcade—Several Other Persons Reported as Missing.

Saratoga, N. Y., June 10.—One person was killed, one fatally injured, two others severely hurt and a number are reported missing as a result of a fire here. The property destroyed was valued at $300,000, with estimated insurance of $175,000.

Mrs. Mable is dead and Fire Chief Shadwick was badly burned about the head. He may die. Mrs. Hart and a servant girl were also injured. Mrs. Mable was burned to death while asleep in her apartments in the Arcade.

The fire started in the Arcade building on Broadway, and destroyed that building, together with the Shackelford and the Theater Saratoga, located in the Citizens' National Bank building. That portion of the latter building occupied by the bank was damaged only by water. The contents of the safes and deposit vaults remain intact. Fortunately there was no wind. Otherwise the fire, which was in the heart of the city, and not far from several of the largest hotels might have developed into a general conflagration. By hard work the firemen succeeded in checking the flames.

Chief Shadwick was injured in rescuing Mrs. Hart from one of the burning buildings.

The missing persons were tenants of the Arcade building. The burning buildings were occupied by officers and stores, among them being the postoffice, the Daily Saratogian (newspaper), the Western Union telegraph office and Saratoga county treasurer's office and Theater Saratoga.

Excitement Dying Out.

Meridian, Miss., June 10.—Telephone reports from Marion and points in the north of Lauderdale county bring the news that excitement has somewhat subsided. Green Johnson and Nate Moore, the negroes arrested Saturday as leaders in the movement to murder the whites, were released, owing to a failure to identify them as rioters and writers of the letters appointing the rendezvous for the negroes who had been armed. Every white man over a territory of 10 miles was armed Saturday night, and slept with a gun beside him in anticipation of trouble. The decisive action of the whites in visiting the negroes and telling them that the first move on their part to carry out their plans would result in their wholesale slaughter is believed to have had a quieting effect.

Shot Two Highwaymen.

Des Moines, June 10.—It is reported from Talmage, 40 miles southwest of this place, that two unidentified men, alleged to be highwaymen, were shot and instantly killed by Claude Bristow of Cawker City, Kan. Bristow was hunting. He alleges the men sprang upon him from behind a clump of bushes attacking him with clubs. He drew a revolver, shooting one man through the head and the other through the lungs. He says both were armed. He exhibits a wound on the back of the head, said to have been caused by the highwaymen.

The Cuban Minister.

Havana, June 10.—Gonzalo Quesada, Cuban minister to Washington, and his family, have sailed for New York. Minister Quesada will go immediately to Washington and open the legation at the Hotel Raleigh until he secures a house. He is the bearer of the good wishes of President Palma to President Roosevelt. He also has been instructed to use every endeavor to secure favorable and quick action on the question of tariff reduction on Cuban products. A large number of friends went aboard to say goodbye and wish Senor Quesada success.

Prisoners Intimidated.

Alamosa, Colo., June 10.—Harshel Smith and his son, Orval, accused of being connected with the murder of a Mexican sheep man, had their preliminary trial. Hershel Smith's bail was fixed at $10,000 and his son's $15,000. Both gave bond. At the close of the trial the Smiths made an attempt to whip the principal witness, and the officers had to draw their revolvers before they could quit him.

St. Paul, June 10.—As a result of injuries received in the riot between citizens and Italian railroad laborers in West St. Paul, A. Robergo died. The others injured will probably recover.

"NOTHING"

In the World Compares With Friendship,"
Says the Multi-Millionaire John D. Rockefeller.

CLEVELAND, O., June 8.—After being assured by a small boy that he would not kick his hat, John D. Rockefeller told his Sunday school to-day that there was nothing in the world, neither money nor anything else, to compare in preciousness with friendship.

Standing before the hundreds of young members of the Sunday school of which he is Superintendent, his head glistening from the aggravated affliction of a baldness that has not spared even his eyebrows, the richest man in the world told the Sunday school that his greatest blessing was not bought with money.

The service was that of the annual Children's Day. Mr. Rockefeller has been Superintendent of the Sunday school for many years.

FRENCHMEN ROBBED.

Their Apartments in New York Are Looted by Thieves.

New York, June 10.—Robbers have entered the apartments of two wealthy Frenchmen, Baron Jacques Meyronnet de Saint Marie and Baron Andre de Neufville, and secured jewelry valued at more than $3,000.

"My things," said Baron Saint Marie, "were quite valuable intrinsically, but much more than money to me for their historic and family associations. A chain alone that was stolen has been in my family since 1459, and is the heritage of the oldest son. If necessary, I will pay $20,000 for its return. Both French noblemen have been in New York through the winter. Baron Neufville is here studying the methods of New York banking, preparatory to entering his father's banking house in Paris. Baron Saint Marie is on his way around the world.

Water Famine in Hongkong.

San Francisco, June 10.—The Pacific mail steamship City of Peking arrived from the orient bringing news of a water famine in Hongkong. The wells of the city have gone dry, and in order to supply the city with water tugs were kept running between the city and the mainland. The officers of Peking state that the drouth affected the Chinese mostly at the time the vessel left. Before every watering place natives stood waiting a chance to fill their buckets.

Brained His Wife.

Valley View, Ky., June 10.—As the result of a quarrel with his wife, John Laffoon, said to be half-witted, brained her with an ax. After committing the deed Laffoon locked up the house and told a neighbor what he had done. BANQUET AND SMOKER.

Pisgah Encampment Honors Grand
Patriarch J. Barbour
Russell.

Oddfellows' Hall the Scene of a Happy
Event Last Evening.

Pisgah Encampment No. 9, I. O. O. F., tendered one of its honored members, Grand Patriarch James Barbour Russell of the Grand Encampment of Kentucky, a banquet and smoker last evening, and the affair was one of the most enjoyable in the history of the order in this city. It was a feast in more ways than one, for following the tempting spread, there was "a feast of reason and a flow of soul," interspersed with delightful music by Maysville's splendid orchestra, that sent every one home in the best of humor, feeling that it was indeed "good to have been there."

The committee in charge of the affair had been thorough in their work, and every detail had been anticipated. The tables were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and evergreens, and were lighted with candles of many colors, while the alcove near the entrance was banked with potted plants. The table of honor occupied the center of the hall, and about this were seated Grand Patriarch Russell, the Sovereign Grand Secretary J. Frank Grant, of Baltimore, (a former member by the way of Pisgah Encampment), Grand Representative Wm. H. Cox, Grand Master Allan D. Cole, Past Grand Patriarch Byron Rudy, Chief Patriarch H. L. Walsh and Patriarch W. C. Pelham, the present Grand Sachem of Kentucky Red Men.

"SMOKER."
Leading mouthpiece, Grand Representative Wm. H. Cox.

Toothsome remarks by the whole array, making a symposium of oratory lasting until the "wee sma" hours.

When honor's cup is handed, grasp it!
When official duty calls, task it!
When compliments shower, get wet!
When troubles arise, don't fret!

By 10 o'clock the "inner man" had been regaled to the heart's content, and then for two hours followed the "smoker," and "the feast of reason and the flow of soul," Grand Representative Cox officiating as toastmaster. Judge Phister opened with a few "incongruous remarks." Jimmie Outten followed with a trombone solo. Harry Walsh didn't make the speech that he forgot. John Duley told a story. Geo. Schwartz gave a very "short talk." Dr. Phillips and Mr. Young responded for the Flemingsburg visitors and invited Maysville up when they dedicate their new hall. Lucien Barker gave a violin "so-low," Henry Ray a cake walk and Alton Schatzmann sang a song in German, and there were short speeches by W. H. Corwin, of Cincinnati, Great Sachem W. C. Pelham, Grand Master Cole, Major Hutchins, C. L. Sallee, W. F. Thomas, L. W. Galbraith, Dr. Brand, the Sovereign Grand Secretary J. Frank Grant, J. D. Dye, M. F. Marsh, Will Trouts, H. C. Curran and Grand Patriarch Russell, the affair closing with "Auld Lang Syne" sung by the Patriarchs, with orchestral accompaniment.

The one sentiment of the evening was that the Grand Encampment of Kentucky could not have bestowed its highest office upon one more worthy than Mr. Russell, and Pisgah Encampment was proud of the honor thus conferred on one of her most popular members.

Previous to the banquet, Pisgah Encampment conferred the Patriarchal degree on two candidates, received three petitions for membership, and held a short reception in honor of the Grand Patriarch.

All in all the affair was a memorable one in the history of Pisgah Encampment.

BUCKSKIN BILL.

He Will be Here Next Monday With His Wild West Show, Including Cowboys, Indians and Mexican Riders.

[Columbus, O., Evening Journal.]

Buckskin Bill's Wild West Show bids fair to be first-class. Thirty-six Indians of the Sioux tribe and several Mexican riders are with the company. A genuine old-time stage coach and one of the big "prairie schooners" are among the outfit.

Short Bull, of Pine Ridge Agency, is the most important of the Indians. Red Bear, of Corn, is also a great man among his people. Bear Shield, of Wounded Knee, and Two Dog, of the Medicine Root district, are important men. Blue Shield is the big man of party. He is twenty-one years old and stands six feet four inches. Bad Corn Cob and Crazy Horse are the police of this band.

For a show like this the Indians are always from different districts. Where they are from the same agency they are apt to clique together and try to run things. All the party are full-blooded Sioux. None draw less salary than $18 per month clear of expenses. The show company gives the respective agencies a bond of $500 for each Indian in its employ. This insures the latter the proper food, medical attention, etc.

The tents are a little larger than those on the reservations, but are fitted up in the same way. In each there was a scene of a recent fire in center, blankets spread around on which braves reclined, and overhead hanging on a line stretched around the teepee fine head dresses, otter skins, bead work, etc. In one teepee was Willie Noheart, an intelligent looking young man who had been two years in the Pine Ridge School. Several braves wore a breast ornament made of bones. They were very pretty and made only by the greatest toil. Red Bear had a fine head dress which, Mr. Swigert said, it took weeks to make. Its value was about $40.

All the Indians are of the better class and some are rich. Red Bear is worth $100,000 and owns a fine ranch on Corn Creek. His son, a Carle graduate, looks after it while his father is with the show.

This show will be here Monday, June 16th, for two performances.

Whisky Medicines.

The temperance press is emphasizing the danger to the home in the use of "medicines" which are loaded with whisky or alcohol. In this respect, as well as in the remarkable character of their cures, Dr. Pierce's medicines differ from other preparations. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription" contain no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant, and are equally free from opium, cocaine and other narcotics. Every family should have a copy of the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent absolutely free, on receipt of stamps to pay expenses of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Gaynor and Greene missed it that they didn't run to Indiana.

Mrs. Dolly Girvin's residence near Springdale was destroyed by fire Sunday night, with all the contents. Insured for $600 in Farmers' Mutual of this county.

Harry P. Taylor, colored, has returned from Nashville where he has been attending medical lectures. He closed the session's studies ranking second in a class of eighty-five.

MILES.

[Baltimore American.]

They're getting on the trails of lots of things that have been done: They think they've got the very man who struck B. Patterson; They're almost sure the villain who hatched up that old gray horse; And dashed away that bitter day with little Charley Ross; Is in their grasp, and now they're fast exposing all his wiles; They don't exactly know, but then— They think that It was Miles!

They're sherlockholmesed around until they say they have a clue To who it was that started Carrie Nation's big to-do; They've got a lot of evidence about the war with Spain; And pretty nearly know the man that busted up the Maine; They think they know who introduced the shirtwaist to men's styles; They're not precisely sure, but then— They think that It was Miles!

The jury's out about that awful crime of '73; And who the guilty wretch was is a thing we soon shall see; They think he is the fellow who arranged the trust in meat; And organized the syndicate to do the sugar beet; They're sure he turned the lava on in those volcanic isles; They can't exactly say, but then— They think that It was Miles!

They whisper that he is the man who ordered out the pump To water-cure the natives till they could no longer jump; They think they've got the very man, as sure as sure can be, Who's guilty of most every crime that's hid in mystery; From powder plots to getting up these fierce an-to-mo-BILES; It isn't settled yet, but then— They hint that It was Miles!
